PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

DAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 9, 1832.

☞ The river is in fine order—Several Steamboats departed yesterday.

MONONGAHELA BRIDGE.—It gives us much pleasure to announce that this truly valuable structure has been completely repaired, and was, on the 1st instant, open for the passage of all who might choose to pass und repass. We are assured that Messrs. Coltart & Dilworth, the contractors for rebuilding the piers and reconstructing the arches which had given way, have most faithfully performed that duty, and that the bridge is more substantial than it has been at any time during the last ten years. Much credit is due to those gentlemen, not only for doing the work faithfully, but speedily. The time at which they were bound to finish it was the fifteenth instant.

SKETCHES OF WESTERN ADVENTURE.—We have recently read, with much satisfaction, a work bearing this title, recently published at Maysville, in Kentucky, and now for sale in this city by Messrs. Johnston & Stockton.

The first settlement of our Western Country was made by enterprizing men, many of whom encountered much danger, endured much suffering, and made hair-breadth escapes,—escapes, not merely from captivity or death, but from death preceded by cruel, lingering torments. The work to which we refer contains well but plainly written narratives of these dangers, sufferings, and escapes; it also contains full and interesting accounts of the disastrous expeditions of Col. Crawford and General St. Clair, and of the more successful operations of Wayne.

Our readers will find, on the opposite page of our paper, an extract from this work, containing an account of the capture of James Smith, of his conveyance to Pittsburgh, of his presence here at the time of Braddock's defeat, and of the awful scenes which were exhibited the day after that melancholy affair, within the limits of this city.

This work, also, contains an account of the capture of the two boys of the name of Johnson, the one eight and the other twelve years old, by two Indians, of their cool and intrepid killing of their captors, of their escape, and safe return to their family. This story we have often read before, but the details seemed so extraordinary, that we could scarcely credit them.—Mr. Hammond, (the editor of the Cincinnati Gazette,) however, states that he knew the Johnsons, and seems to attest the truth of the narrative.

The work, though of a plain and unassuming style, is calculated to engross the attention of a reader, and to fix indelibly on the memory a recollection of the trials which occurred at the first settlement of this section of country.

THE LATE ELECTION.—We confidently expected that the Anti-Masonic ticket would have received the votes of a majority of the electors of Allegheny county; the result has, therefore, disappointed us. But, although the Jackson electoral ticket received more votes than that opposed to it, yet it is most manifest that there is a majority of the voters of the county who prefer another person to General Jackson. Various circumstances co-operated to prevent a full and fair expression of public opinion. The contest, between the Anti-Masonic and Clay parties, had been carried on very warmly, and to a very late hour in the campaign, and when the Clay ticket was at length withdrawn, sufficient time did not remain to explain the object and the effect of that withdrawal. Many Anti-Masons, who had been Jacksonites were alarmed, and became suspicious that the Anti-Masoni electoral ticket would, if elected, vote for Henry Clay. The Jacksonmen, with that skill and activity which has marked their conduct, cherished this suspicion, and even some of the Clay men, with more zeal than discretion, propagated the same opinion. Several little matters, which it is not necessary to mention, concurred to corroborate the statements and declarations of these Jackson and Clay men, that the electoral ticket would go for Clay. Under these circumstances, many Anti-Masons, who had originally been Jacksonites, and who had not yet overcome the strong prejudices which they had imbibed against Mr. Clay, concluded that, if they must vote for a mason, they would prefer Gen. Jackson, or not vote at all.

THE VICE PRESIDENCY.—Already has the 'Blairsville Record' given the intimation 'that a confident expectation is entertained that Mr. Wilkins will withdraw his name, and thus give to our electoral college a chance to vote for Martin Van Buren.' This is precisely what we expected, when we challenged Patrick Mulvany to deny that he intended to vote for the great Magician, and it is exactly what he anticipated, when he declared that he 'would not violate his pledge.'

Will Judge Wilkins yield to this intimation? Will he do so, and then accept an appointment from the President? Will he withdraw, for the purpose of securing, by a trick, the triumph of a New Yorker over his two opponents, both Pennsylvanians? His situation is probably not free of difficulty, but he will deliberate fully before he will act. He will bear in mind that Jacksonism is on the wane, and that, before his senaterial term expires, General Jackson will have retired to the Hermitage, and new parties have been formed. He will probably foresee that four years hence it will not be a favorable reminiscence that he had aided to secure the election of a New Yorker—an enemy of the Pennsylvania United States' Bank—over two native Pennsylvanians, friends of that Bank. He will probably recollect that for more than one year past, his own friends have declared that Pennsylvania was entitled to the Vice Presidency. Will he contribute to deprive her of her right, and to confer it upon her most bitter enemy?—We will see.

THE GREAT VICTORY.—The Jacksonites seem greatly delighted with what they please to call their great victory in this state. That portion of the party who considered an election as a battle with an enemy, and the offices as the spoils of victory, have reason to rejoice. So far as Pennsylvania is concerned, the distribution of these offices is again intrusted to the hand that has so long abused that trust. The man, however, who is thus re-elected, unless his feelings and ambition are of the grossest and most depraved character, can derive nothing but unallayed mortification from the Pennsylvania election.

Four years ago he was elected, by a large majority, over a popular Pennsylvanian statesman, who' even in his retirement has, by the exhibition of his virtues and his talents, cast his successful competitor entirely into the shade. At that time, one hundred and fifty thousand votes were polled, of which General Jackson received one hundred thousand, thus having a majority of fifty thousand votes. Four years have since elapsed—General Jackson has had the uncontrolled distribution of the offices; that power has been lavishly exercised; presses without number are bought up; and yet, at a second election, his majority is reduced twenty or twenty-five thousand. Indeed, so general has been the desertion of his supporters, that not only is his aggregate majority reduced, but his majority, in every county from which we have heard, is decreased.

We notice this matter now, not because the result is mortifying to General Jackson, but because it is cheering to the friends of the constitution, of a sound currency, and of an independant judiciary. Because it proves, fully, the falsity of the declarations of some of the partisans of General Jackson, that he could do nothing to deprive himself of the affections of the people. We mention it, because it contains the salutary intimation to our President, that already have fifteen or twenty thousand of his supporters in this state—and these fifteen or twenty thousand, among the most intelligent, patriotic, and disinterested of his old friends, abandoned his cause. Because it conveys to him, in a language which cannot be misunderstood, a solemn warning that, if his future course is not entirely different from his past, he will become, in the course of the ensuing four years, odious to a large majority of the yeomanry of the state. Because it conveys to our own politicians a timely hint that Jackson's name will not, hereafter, be a defence against every charge of misconduct, and that they must rely upon their own good conduct, and not upon the name of General Jackson, for the approbation of their constituents.

BOARD OF HEALTH,
Pittsburgh, Nov. 8, 1832.

HEALTH PHYSICIAN'S REPORT.

To S. Pettigrew, Esq. President B. Health—

Sir—The Health of our city has not been interrupted, within the last 24 hours, by the occurrence of any case of Malignant Cholera. The case of James Eaton, reported on the 5th inst., proved fatal this morning.

J. R. McCLINTOCK, H. P.

N. B. No cases have originated since the 3d inst., and none have been reported since 9 o'clock, A. M. of the 5th.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

From Poulson's Daily Advertiser.

FIVE DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

The ship Silas Richards, Capt. Holdredge, arrived at the port of New York, on Saturday last. She left Liverpool on the 24th Sept. and has brought dates from that place of the 24th, and from London of the 23d.

The following extracts fully confirm the accounts by the way of Havre of the more warlike aspect which affairs between Holland and Belgium had assumed.

DEATH OF WALTER SCOTT.

A letter was sent on board the ship the day she sailed, for the lady of Judge Sewell, of Quebec, with an endorsement on the back of it; that Sir Walter Scott died on the twenty-second of September.

Letters have been received at Paris from Alexandria, dated the 18th of July, which state that a telegraphic despatch had been received at that place, announcing the capture of the Turkish camp at Hama, by the Egyptians.

LEITH, Sept. 18.—This morning, at 10 o'clock, the United Kingdom steam boat sailed from Newhaven Roads for Hamburg, having on board his Ex-Majesty Charles X. Duke de Bordeaux, and suite.

DEATH OF FERDINAND OF SPAIN.

LONDON, Saturday evening, September 22.—Intelligence has been received through France to day, of the death of the King of Spain, which there is no reason for doubting, though some persons have declared themselves incredulous on the subject. His health has been declining for some time past, and he has lately had a severe attack of the gout. This news, if confirmed, is expected to hasten the approach of the crisis in Spain.

REJECTION OF THE ULTIMATUM OF THE LONDON CONFERENCE.

LONDON, Saturday evening, September 22.—Very little excitement has been produced in the money market by the confirmation of the rumors respecting the note of the King of Holland, though in fact, to the general apprehension, it makes the alternative of a war all but inevitable. This is owing, probably, to the very contracted state of business, and the almost total extinction of speculative transactions in the funds. Had similar circumstances occurred a year or two back, they could not have failed to produce very material fluctuations. Consols left off at 84 1-8, and Exchequer bills at 16 to 17 premium.

From the Sun, evening of Sept. 22.

The expectations which were entertained by the Conference of a speedy and satisfactory arrangement of the Belgian question are at an end. On Thursday evening, a sealed note from the King of Holland to the Conference, was given to Lord Palmerston by the Dutch Ambassador, Baron Von Zuylen, and last night the members of the Conference having all assembled, the note was opened and read by them.—Instead of finding, as they had expected, an acknowledgment of the readiness of the King of Holland to treat with the King of Belgium, on the recommendations of the Conference, and an appointment of Baron Von Zuylen, with full powers to treat with M. Van de Weyer, the Conference, to their astonishment, and to the real indignation of some, as well as the avowed indignation of all, found a long note without the slightest allusion to the proposal of negotiations between M. Van de Weyer and Baron Von Zuylen, or to the suggestions of the Conference.

The note commences by an expression of surprise on the part of the writer, M. de Verstolk, in the name of the King, his master, at the delay which has attended the Belgian question since the conditions on which the King was willing to treat had been made known to the Conference and to the Belgians, and then proceeds, in language which is intended to be courteous, but which is not to be misunderstood, to complain of the support given by the Conference to revolutionary principles, and to declare that, whatever may be the conduct of the great powers, the King of Holland, relying on the justice of his cause, and on the support of Divine Providence, will know how to maintain his honor, without the necessity of conceding points which are of vital importance to his country.

The note is of great length, but we have given its chief character. It is evidently intended only for farther delay, and unless France and England should act a decisive and manly part, that object will be gained. Let us hope, however, that the two cabinets will see their interest, and unite in a resolution to compel the King of Holland to conclude a treaty with Belgium, on terms which, without being dishonorable to him, shall be fair and liberal towards his former subjects.

The position of Leopold is now one of great difficulty; but, as regards his country and France, it is better than it was a few days ago. By taking upon himself to accept the proposals of the Conference, contrary to the declared wishes of his Chambers, and to dismiss a ministry acting in accordance with those bodies, he has shown his desire for peace, and has now a direct claim for support on the British and French cabinets. The King of Holland has rejected all overtures for peace, except on his own terms; and if Belgium be abandoned by us and France, after the concessions offered by her king, at the risk of his own popularity with his people, the two governments will be guilty not only of great meanness, but of great injustice; and the next thing to be expected will be a dictation to England and France, on matters directly concerning their own honor and safety, by some petty state, acting as the puppet of Russia, Austria, or Prussia.—London Sun.

EXPRESS FROM PARIS.

LONDON, Sept. 22, (Evening.)—An express from Paris has arrived to day, with the letters of Thursday, and every thing indicates that France is perfectly ready to second the decision of the Conference, by a movement against Holland, should that step be deemed advisable. Troops are collected on the frontier next Belgium, and could, it is conceived, be in Brussels in a very short time. The Duke of Orleans has left Paris for Brussels, in order, as it is supposed, to convey to Leopold the opinions of the French Ministry, and to explain the course which is intended to be pursued in the event of the King of Holland proving refractory. The late communication from the Hague, which was laid before the London Conference yesterday, was not known in Paris, but every expectation existed that it would turn out as unsatisfactory as has really proved to be the case. It is perfectly understood, however, that the French troops will not move without the concurrence of the English Ministry. The co-operation of England, by sending a fleet into the Scheldt, is desired by France, but failing inthat, the consent of the Ministry to the march of the French troops into Belgium will be deemed sufficient. The funds fell about one per cent., in Paris, on Thursday, in consequence of the feeling that an interference, in behalf of Belgium, had become all but inevitable.

CHANGE IN THE BELGIAN MINISTRY.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—Despatches have been received by M. Van de Weyer, the Belgian Minister, from General Goblet, announcing the retirement of M. de Meulinare, the Belgian Minister for Foreign Affairs, and the appointment of Gen. Goblet to that post, ad interim. An entire change of the Belgian Ministry is announced, but it is not yet officially stated who are to replace them. M. Van Weyer has received from General Goblet full powers to treat with the Dutch Minister, Baron Von Zuylen, on the dispute between Holland and Belgium; but, up to the present time, Baron Von Zuylen has received no powers from his court to treat with M. Van de Weyer on the subject: and it remains to be seen whether the King of Holland will consent to such a mode of proceeding, taking for the basis of it the recommendations of the Conference.

It is not true, as stated by some of our contemporaries, that Leopold has accepted certain propositions from the Conference; he has neither accepted nor rejected any thing that has been suggested to him from that quarter; and the Conference has merely advised the course which they wish him to follow. The retiremest of M. de Meulinaire and the other ministers, however, and the powers given to M. Van de Weyer to negotiate with the Baron Von Zuylen, are, we think, strong indications of a disposition, on the part of Leopold, to adopt most, if not all, the suggestions of the Conference.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The Russian ambassador, Count Malasacvilch, has arrived in town to day from Doncaster. He is supposed to have been sent for by the Dutch Minister, to strengthen his position with regard to the Conference of the English Ministry. The meeting of the Conference, which was to have taken place to day, has been put off till Monday, and it is believed that Lord Grey has been sent for to assist at its deliberations.

Of the foreign funds the chief fluctuations to day were in Dutch and Belgian, which have both declined. All the European securities are, however, more or less affected by the crisis which is believed to be impending.

ARRIVAL OF THE DUCHESS DE BERRI IN HOLLAND.—The Gazette de Normandie says—"Whilst at Nantz they are breaking through the doors of convents to look for the Duchess de Berri, she has been received with regard and respect in Holland, where she has just arrived, and where she will shortly embrace her family and her children.

DON PEDRO'S EXPEDITION.

There are no later accounts from Portugal. Reinforcements, to aid the cause of Don Pedro, were continually departing.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The Lord Wellington East Indiaman, a large ship of upwards of 1,400 tons burthen, has been lately purchased by the agents of Don Pedro, after having made several voyages to the East Indies, and is now being enlarged, altered, and repaired, at the ship building yard of Messrs. Cox & Lunehouse. This fine vessel will be pierced for sixty guns, and will, in fact, be transformed into a line-of-battle ship sufficient to cope with the largest man-of-war in Don Miguel's service, and will prove, when completed, a powerful reinforcement to the fleet of Admiral Sartorious.

The Echo, steam boat, Lieutenant Otway, sailed from Falmouth on Tuesday, 18th, for Oporto, with the Marquis Palmella, Senhor Barboza, his Secretary, and suite; Senhors Casta, Vasconcellos, Rorke, and Gomez, on a special mission in the cause of Donna Maria. The Marquis reached Falmouth on Saturday morning. The steam boat had been detained some days, waiting for the arrival of a messenger with despatches, who arrived on Tuesday, and the steam boat sailed immediately.—Plymouth Journal.

Major Lawson, who came home from Oporto on leave, in consequence of differences, as we are informed, with Col. Hodges, is about to return from Portugal, accompanied by a general officer of considerable experience, under whose command Count Villa Flor served during the war. Several hundred effective men, who have enrolled themselves under Don Pedro, will go out with these gallant officers.

From the London Times.

More than 100,000 quarters of wheat, and 58,000 cwt. of flour, have recently, it appears, been entered for home consumption. At the present high rate of duty, they will produce nearly £150,000 to the revenue, and will prove a very unexpected aid to Ministers, who, in consequence of the abundant harvest, had not calculated on any accession through the duties on grain and flour. The holders of corn, thus brought forward for home consumption, will, of course, suffer a heavy loss; but they have no doubt found, in the present low price of grain, all over Europe, that this was the only mode left to obtain a market for it.

A SIGN.

Vice President.—It is now evident that President Jackson will be triumphantly re-elected, and it is hoped that no mistaken feelings of State pride, in Pennsylvania, will interfere to prevent the same glorious triumph for the Democratic candidate for Vice President. Mr. Van Buren is clearly that candidate. Mr. P. P. Barbour, with a patriotism that does him high honor, has withdrawn his name, and the confident expectation is entertained, that Mr. Wilkins will adopt the same elevated course, and thus give to our electoral college, the chance of casting their votes for Mr. Van Buren. Our democratic friends in this quarter are, we believe, unanimous in their wish that this change should take place. The prevailing feeling amongst them is, an earnest wish that the Jackson democratic party may now be 'one and indivisible.'—Blairsville Record.

From the Harrisburgh Reporter, of Friday (the Organ of the State Administration.)

THE VICE PRESIDENCY.—We have understood, from good authority, that efforts are now secretly making by the friend of Mr. Van Buren to secure for him the electoral vote of Pennsylvania. Whether Mr. Wilkins will decline in favor of Mr. Van Buren, or whether any of the Electors upon our ticket will forfeit their solemn pledges, we cannot take upon ourselves to say; but this much we believe, that in no event will several of the gentlemen on the Jackson and Wilkins Electoral ticket vote for Mr. Van Buren. We speak advisedly on this subject; and would therefore respectfully caution our democratic friends throughout the State to beware of entering into any measure which may throw discord and division into our ranks.

The New York Mercantile, of Nov. 2nd, says—"Yesterday, agreeably to previous arrangements, the consecration of four Bishops took place in St. Paul's Church. There were present nine Bishops, who united in the imposition of hands. Their appearance, together with the solemnity of the duties which they performed, gave interest to the scene, which was witnessed by a crowded congregation. After the exercises were concluded, the house of Bishops and of clerical and lay deputies, met together, and were dismissed by the venerable presiding Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Wm. White."

The Bishops consecrated were,

Rt. Rev. John H. Hopkins, D. D. Bishop of Vermont.

Rt. Rev. Benjamin B. Smith, M. D. Bishop of Kentucky.

Rt. Rev. Charles P. M'Ilvaine, D. D. Bishop of Ohio.

Rt. Rev. George W. Doane, Bishop of New Jersey.—Balt. Amer.

Representation of Boston.—The number of rateable polls in the capital of Massachusetts is 14,184, which, by the constitution of that State, entitles the city of Boston to sixty-three representatives. A meeting of the two branches of the city government has recently decided to avail themselves of the privilege of sending to the legislature the whole number to which they are by law entitled.—Balt. Patriot.

English Cities.—In the year 1801, London was the only city in Great Britain which had more than 100,000 inhabitants. In 1831, there were seven others which exceeded that number. Manchester is the second city, Glasgow the third, Liverpool the fourth, and Edinburgh the fifth.

A Skeleton made from a Willow Tree.—Some years ago a skeleton was made by one of the first artists in London, according to an order received from a Hindoo Nabob, desirous of understanding the structure of the human body, but whose religion prohibited him from touching any thing possessed of life. It was made of willow and pear tree, copied, with scrupulous precision, from a real skeleton. So exact was the resemblance, that even an anatomist could not distinguish it from a real skeleton by the eye alone. On handling it, the lightness proved it was not bone. The artist received 300 guineas for this piece of mechanism.—The Doctor.

For Private Sale,

A beautifully situated Country Seat and Farm, near Zelienople, commanding an extensive view of a well cultivated valley of the Connequenessing, and several little growing villages. It contains about 300 acres, half of which are cleared and laid out in Pasture Fields and Meadows: a handsome Three Story Stone Dwelling House, finished in an elegant and comfortable manner, calculated for two genteel families. The Out Houses are Frame, consisting of a large Sheep Stable, 100 by 40 feet; a Barn, a Bathing, Wash and Smoke House, and other necessary buildings; a large Garden and Fruit-bearing Orchard behind the House; several never failing springs of the purest water; an excellent Coal Mine. The country, being elevated, is well known for its purity of atmosphere and consequent salubrity. Any gentleman or family wishing to retire from a crowded city, to enjoy the health, comforts, and beauties of a well situated Country Residence, could hardly find a more eligible location. The establishment might also be advantageously occupied as a Young Ladies' Academy. The distance from Pittsburgh is 25 miles; a line of stages passes, daily, within a short distance. Beaver, on the Ohio, is distant only ten miles. Further Particulars will be given by the subscriber, residing on the premises, or by Chas. L. Volz, Esq. Pittsburgh.

DR. HEINZELMAN'S

Late Improved Truss.

THOSE laboring under the distressing and dangerous disease Hernia, (Rupture,) are respectfully informed that the above improved Gum Elastic Pad Truss, for which there has been letters patent granted by the President of the U. States, exceeds every instrument of the kind heretofore offered to the public. The high commendations already bestowed, and universal satisfaction given to those afflicted, affords the fullest proof to those wishing effectual and certain remedy for the same, adapted to the different species of this disease, to which male, female, and children are subject.

As regards the true surgical principles of a proper constructed Truss for the radical cure of Hernia, together with cleanliness (as it can be re-covered by the patient himself with a piece of silk or linen) and durability with elegance of execution, he feels satisfied of rendering general benefit to the afflicted, as the correctness upon which it is constructed being abundantly tested by experience, having also submitted the above instrument to the inspection of several medical gentlemen of great experience and character, all of whom concur in forming an exceedingly favorable opinion of the simplicity of construction and limited motion, graduated to the different attitudes and permanency of location on the body, as the central elastic projection on the concave disk of the pad, as well as its vertical spiral spring appearing to them an improvement that will be found valuable in the management of Hernia, and cannot fail to meet with the approbation of the profession.

Among those, he takes pleasure in referring to

They have established, for this purpose, an intelligence office at the residence of Dr. Kling, 3d street, between Smithfield and Wood streets.

The office will be open every day, from 1 to 3 o'clock, Sundays excepted.

Edgeworth Ladies' Boarding School,

BRADDOCKSFIRD, NEAR PITTSBURGH,

Will recommence its engagements on the first Monday of October next.

THE increased and increasing approbation given to this institution cannot fail to produce a corresponding zeal and energy, and a desire to secure a settled good opinion. At this time very many additions have been made, for the convenience, comfort, and well doing of the pupils.—In so large a field as is open for education, understood in its true and extensive sense, there must be room for continual culture. Unabated will be the effort to do the utmost possible to meet so responsible a charge as the care of youth, and to this effort will be added the aid experience brings.—With little observation, in every succeeding month, somewhat is seen to revise and improve.

Edgeworth Seminary has been now of several years standing, and, disclaiming all egotism, it is only the fact to say that experience enables it to offer rather an increase than a diminution of means to give satisfaction.

The health enjoyed by the inmates, and beauty of situation of Braddocksfield Mansion, are well known to visiters, but for information of strangers, it is necessary to state, that in both particulars terms too flattering cannot easily be used.

To instruct, coercive means are not employed—reference is made to the heart as well as the head. Pains are taken to inculcate, that to be great, it is an indispensable to be virtuous; and as the worth of knowledge is only to be estimated by its tendency to right action, the study of every branch, and the proportion of time given to it, will be made subservient and tributary to useful moral and religious improvement.

Sabbath day engagements must not be interrupted unnecessarily. Pupils living at a distance, or from any cause, disposed to make Braddocksfield, during the vacation, their home, are invited to do so, and no additional charge is made.

TERMS.

TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. J. SUMNER, having discovered an infallible cure for different species of HERNIA or RUPTURE, by an external application of ointment, without inconvenience to the patient; which ointment, prepared only by himself, he now offers for sale to all who are afflicted with the above complaint, being confident of success from the many proofs he has had of its efficacy—likewise, he considers it a duty to give to the public a fair statement of his own case.

For fifteen years he was sorely afflicted with two Ruptures, the pains of which were so severe, that he was compelled to relinquish all active business, wearing a Truss, and keeping himself a long period mostly confined, and had nearly gave up all hope of ever enjoying a comfortable state of health.—In this dilemma he was forcibly struck with the old adage, that there never was an evil without a remedy, and forthwith commenced a series of experiments upon himself, which through Divine Providence resulted in a complete and radical cure. JOHN SUMNER,
No. 139 North Third Street, Philadelphia.

This may certify, That my Son, aged thirteen years, was afflicted with a Rupture for three years, and was under the necessity of wearing the Truss constantly, but without any other effect than a temporary relief, and was effectually cured by Dr. J. Sumner in about three weeks time.

JOHN C. DOUGLAS,
No. 131 South Eleventh street, Philadelphia

This may Certify, That I have been afflicted with a Rupture for between four and five years, and have been effectually cured by Doctor J. Sumner, in about five weeks time.

I Certify, That I was afflicted with a Rupture for four years, and was effectually cured by the application of Dr. Sumner's OINTMENT, in the term of four weeks. E. WILSON.

PATENT PLANING MACHINE.—The right to use this valuable machine, invented and patented by William Woodworth, and known as Woodworth's Patent Planing Machine, may be obtained on application to the subscriber for the counties of Allegheny, Butler, Beaver, Washington, Green, Fayette, Somerset, Cambria, Indiana, Jefferson, Clearfield, M'Kean, Warren, Venango, Mercer, Crawford, and Erie, in the State of Pennsylvania. That part of Maryland lying west of the Blue Ridge; all that part of Virginia lying west of the Blue Ridge, except the county of Ohio. The whole of the state of Ohio except the counties of Hamilton, Butler, and Montgomery. The whole of the state of Kentucky, except the counties of Jefferson, Boone, Oldham, Gallatin, and Campbell. The whole of Indiana, except the counties of Floyd, Clark, Jefferson, Dearborn, and Switzerland. The whole of the state of Illinois, and the territory of Michigan. Rights to use the machine in that part of the United States, named above, will be sold by the single county or in larger districts. As it is presumed that no one will purchase without seeing the machine at work, a description of it is deemed unnecessary. Should any person, however, wish to purchase, and find it inconvenient to visit the places where it is in operation, a machine will be furnished, warranted to plane, tongue and groove, and bring to an exact width and thickness, a white pine board of 12 feet long, and of any width from 1 to 14 inches, in one minute and ten seconds, or an oak board of the same dimensions in 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Machines may be seen at work in the cities of New Orleans, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, and others at the south and east, at Wheeling, Virginia, and at the saw mill of Messrs. Irwin & Herron, in this city.

Persons desiring to purchase will have the certificates of scientific and practical men who have seen it at work, in the different places in which it has been put up, forwarded to them. They give their opinion as to the great value of the invention, state the time they have seen boards dressed by this machine, and describe the quality of the work as compared with that performed by hand labor.

DOCTOR ROBERT'S

☞WELCH MEDICAMENTUM.☜

FOR the cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Cholic, Fever and Ague, Dysentery, Headach, Loss of Appetite, Flatulence, Hypochondria, Hysterics, Dropsical Complaints, and Heartburn. It also prevents all Bilious disorders, and removes habitual Costiveness, Asthma, Strangury, Gravel, Rheumatism, Gout, and Impurities of the Blood.

A person who uses this Medicamentum will not require the use of the lancet, or any means of the healing art. It restores and revives the animal spirits, invigorates the system, removes nervous tremors, obtunds rheumatic and anthritic pains, and prevents their return. It cleanses the stomach of all morbid humors, which cause indigestion, acidities, headach, and lowness of spirits; cures all bilious disorders, and all cholics of the stomach and bowels, almost immediately; inspires cheerfulness; gives comfort to the dropsical; takes away palpitation of the heart; gives circulation to the blood; restores bloom to the sallow or sickly cheek, and plumpness to the meagre habit; purges without pain, and banishes all cause of fever of every kind. It acts on the stomach, that great reservoir of the human system, a diseased state of which causes all diseases. No alteration in the usual habits of life is required, but the abstaining from distilled ardent spirits.

CERTIFICATE,

From Rev. Derick Lansing, D. D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Utica.

UTICA, Jan. 6, 1830.

To Dr. Hitchcock.—Dear Sir: I have always been one of the number of those who have placed little confidence in nostrums or specifics, and for this reason, although I saw your advertisement of the Welch Medicamentum, I could not bring my mind to consent to use it. My sufferings, from indigestion, during the past summer, were so severe, as materially to affect my comfort, and my capacity for usefulness. I have reason to thank you, sir, that, on hearing of the state of my health, you kindly sent me your Medicamentum. I have taken it faithfully, and with entire success. I have not been visited with one of those turns of distress, which before were weekly periodical, since I began to take your valuable medicine. Could I receive the same relief which I have hitherto experienced, on condition of taking it for life, I should cheerfully comply with such condition. Your's, very truly, D. C. LANSING.
